Presents

The UN Convention and you.

The Convention on the Rights of Person's with Disabilities: Compliance, Implementation and Monitoring

Guest Speaker

Vangelis Nikias

CRPD Project Manager,
Canadian Council on Disabilities

The Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD), the first international human rights instrument of the 21st century, reaffirms human rights of persons with a disability.

Persons with disabilities, including Canadians, played a key role in the development of the CRPD and the Council of Canadians with Disabilities (CCD) believes that the continued active participation of persons with disabilities is necessary to create the political will to move forward with the convention.
