

1. Yes, to some extent that improving accessibility to its own buildings, public roads/sidewalks and encouraging development of more accessible residential units are part of the ongoing effort.

2. No. We need to work further on the integration of accessibility into all public and new (and renovated) private facilities. Snow removal and condition of sidewalks still present major barriers. Paratransit service needs improvements to meet the growing demand.

3. Yes.

Brian Runge
Ward 8, City Council Candidate